Golf Tournaments 101

The Guide Book for Charity Fundraiser and Corporate Golf Outings

Mel Lewis, member of the PGA of New Zealand since 1969 and Golf Tournament Director at Braemar Country Club in Tarzana, California for 14 years, has just published his much anticipated book, "Golf Tournaments 101".

This book describes in detail how charities and organizations can raise money by holding a one-day fundraiser golf tournament. Step-by-step, everything you need to know about setting up and running a successful event is explained in simple terms. Even people with no knowledge of golf can put a tournament together! There is a CD included with over thirty user friendly files; for example: an advertising flyer, golfer registration-forms, entry-forms and golf tournament rule-sheets. This is a must have book for charities, event-planners, schools, religious groups and booster-clubs. It is also an informative reference guide for golf professionals.
